JACKSON COUNTY HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING AND PICNIC

Jackson County Farm Bureau Federation held their annual meeting and picnic on Monday, September 16, 2019 at the Jackson Energy Farm on highway 421 in Mckee.

The meeting is held each year to allow members to be involved in any business matters and to elect board members for the next year. Members were treated to a picnic of hamburgers, baked beans, chips and desert. There were also prizes given away.

There were approximately 125 members in attendance along with several special guests which included, Sharon Furches, 2nd Vice President of KY Farm Bureau; Brad Wilkerson, Area Program Director; Lynn Parsons, Consultant For Farm Bureau; Ryan Midden, Sales; Terry Lawson, State Director and his wife, Marlene.

Harry Wilson, President; Doug Wilson, Young Farmer Chairman; Brenda Ayers, Agency Manager

Our annual veterinary clinic was held on September 6 at the Jackson County Farm Bureau office. Members could bring in up to four pets to be vaccinated for Parvo and Rabies at a reduced price. This program has been a great success with approximately 50 pets receiving these vaccinations each year. This year was not an exception. Veterinarian Joey Minter was on hand from 9 until noon and saw 45 furry friends. We are proud to be able to offer this member benefit in our county.
