

Logan County Farm Bureau Federation

LOGAN COUNTY FARM BUREAU CONTINUES TO PROMOTE THE FARM WATCH PROGRAM

Logan County Farm Bureau partnered with the Logan County Sheriff's Department in a program entitled FARM WATCH. The program informs rural residents when a theft has been committed in their area. This program will allow our Logan County Farm Bureau Membership to be eyes and ears for each other. Signs are given to post on member's property stating that they are a part of the Farm Watch program. These signs were designed to coordinate with the Kentucky Farm Bureau $5,000 reward signs. For more information call the Logan County Farm Bureau Office at 270-726-9539. To sign up for the Farm Watch program, stop by the Logan County Farm Bureau Office located at 426 E 4th Street in Russellville, Ky.

2017 FARM BUREAU SCHOLARSHIP WINNER

The 2017 Logan County Farm Bureau $500.00 scholarship was awarded to Andrew Milam, son of Chris and Laura Milam. Andrew will graduate from Logan County High School in May and plans to attend Western Kentucky University where he will be majoring in animal nutrition. His future plans include being an important contributor to his family farming operation.

IFAL – INSTITUTE FOR FUTURE AGRICULTURAL LEADERS

Logan County Farm Bureau will be represented Kennedy Campbell and Jessalyn Robey at the 2017 IFAL. Kennedy is the daughter of Ken and Melissa Campbell. Jessalyn is the daughter of Chris and Jessica Robey. Both students attend Logan County High School and will be attending IFAL at the University of Kentucky. This seminar is a career and leadership conference for students who have finished their junior year in high school and who have an interest in agricultural careers. Kentucky Farm Bureau sponsors this program for these young leaders of tomorrow.

DISTRICT 4 MEETING AT BARREN RIVER

Logan County had eight board members to attend the District 4 Farm Bureau meeting at Barren River Lodge on Tuesday evening, March 28, 2017. Those present were Russell & Patsy Poore, John & Myra Alcott, Jerry & Carrell Hughes, Doug & Karen Milliken, and Jay Campbell, president of Logan County Farm Bureau.

WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP/PLANNING MEETING

In August 2017, the District 4 Farm Bureau Women's Planning meeting will be held at Chaney's Dairy in Bowling Green. Ladies from eight counties in the district will attend the meeting, enjoy a delightful luncheon and ice cream. The agenda for the day will include updating the Women's Resource Book and reviewing the guidelines for the county and district Outstanding Farm Bureau Youth and Variety Contests. Also, plans will be made for the District 4 Outstanding FB Youth and Variety Contest to be held in Glasgow at the Lera B Mitchell Clubhouse on Saturday night, November 4, 2017 at 7:00 p.m.

UPCOMING EVENTS:

- Kentucky Young Farmer Outing – July 14 – 16, 2017
- 4th District FB Women's Planning Meeting – August, 2017 – Chaney's Dairy
- Progressive Ag Safety Day – Thursday, September 14, 2017 – UK Extension Complex
- Logan County Farm Bureau Annual Meeting – Saturday, September 9, 2017 – UK Extension Building
- 18th Kentucky Women In Ag Conference – November 6 – 8, 2017 – Lexington Hilton Downtown
- 98th Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation Annual Convention – November 29 – December 2, 2017 – Galt House, Louisville